

We are now offering individual or group fly casting lessons with convenient rates for groups. Now would be easy for business travelers to have the chance of learning the art of Fly fishing.

Also you can take a short weekend trip, to take one day fly fishing lesson, and one or two more days doing a fly fishing trip to one of the superb rivers of Puerto Varas area, this tourist town is well known as the door of Chilean Patagonia. Normally each season we carry out this lessons from September to December or from late March to first Monday of May. In the high season we do not make lessons sorry for this, we need to be focused in our fishing trips to Patagonia, our jewel of fishing in Chile.

Otherwise, in winter time, we can't do fishing trips because it's not permitted, season is close in winter. This is the time to be focused in fly Casting lessons among other tourist choices we offer in winter (read our section for other outdoor activities). For those people who are doing business trips to Chile, they can take two days of fishing lessons, lodging, and meals included in "El Maqui" what is maybe the best place to rest and learn this wonderful art of the fly fishing. Take a look of "El Maqui" and the Lessons.
