

Just wanted to thank you for the great time I had in Chile and the Patagonia. I can honestly say all you made it a trip of a life time. I can't wait to get back. I am still crying over not having a picture of that last fish, but I had the pleasure of catching it in some great water with friends. I just wanted to thank you again for your hospitality and let you know that I am already looking forward to next year. I will definitely be back. I hope this finds you well and still enjoying the season.
