

Our best seller program for anglers looking for the finest fishing, with the most excitement using dry flies to catch big wild trout. We are talking about venturing into wilderness, but with all the safety and comfort found in other renowned tourist regions. This is a trip for the most demanding fly fishers who like to enjoy the greatest thrills in fishing along with our best guides and staying in a great lodge. This is located in a dream and secluded spot, and offers all the comfort of a five star lodge of the Patagonia.

Includes:

- 7 nights Lodging
- Double rooms, with either twin or queen size beds
- All meals locally prepared to the highest gastronomical standards of the region, Chilean wines selection, and beverages.
- 6 days of fishing while floating and wading rivers, guided by our best bilingual and expert guides.
- Comfortable Cataracts or powered boats for fly-fishing when necessary.
- Transportation: lodge to fishing to lodge
- Round trip tickets for the flight between Puerto Montt -Santa Barbara (Chaiten); or ground transfer from Esquel to the lodge.
- Ground transfer in-out (from Santa Barbara, or Esquel or Palena Airport).

Not included:

- Air, land or sea transportation, international or local not mentioned above; liquors, gratuities or any other items not specifically mentioned above as included.

Request further information about our package we offer for this region. Prices, fishing destinations, rivers, species, fishing stuff and equipment to bring.

